Honest
a) Minute scene 00: 11: 33-00: 11: 54 where Lynn writes her test answer to be given to Grace. Although Lynn did it voluntarily, but here Lynn and Grace did the exam questions dishonestly. In this film, their cheating gives the understanding that a small lie starting from oneself will definitely harm in the future for him as well as for others. Therefore, doing something must be honest, supervised or not in order to be trusted by others. Their actions are mistakes, therefore this film conveys an implicit moral message.
   Lynn: This question is the same as Encik Sophon's paper.
   Grace: Yes!
   Lynn: You can make it, right?
   Grace: No.
   Lynn: Why anyway?
   Grace: I've taught you! I can not remember.
   Teacher: Why are you talking?

   Lynn: Grace! Answer.

b) Scene 00:29:57 - 00:30:38, Tong asks the bank for a cheat sheet and will pay for it worth 1.2 million. But the Bank only showed an astonished expression and left Tong instead. (Principal asked Lynn, but Bank answered) Bank: "Because of money, Dong paid me to do his test papers. 1.2 million He admitted that he would be paid by Tong if he was willing to cheat." The things that the bank said proved that he was honest, not hiding facts that would embarrass him, Lynn, and also Tong.

e) Scene minute 01:55:03 - 01:56:18 Lynn began to confess, during a job interview and did not cover up her mistakes. Interviewer: "Being a teacher is not just about academics. Do you think you can set a good example?" Lynn: "I won't lie. I did a lot of bad things in the past. But I will use it to teach myself and others." Interviewer: "What a waste. You've accomplished a lot. You can register for scholarships and study abroad. Are you not interested in that?" Lynn: "I think others are more appropriate."    Father: Yes?
   Lynn: I am a child for recognition.
   Father: What is he, baby? Tell the father.
   Lynn: Why are you interested in the field of recitation? I want to be a teacher like my dad. So others may benefit from my knowledge.
   Father: You have experience in giving instruction point or teach others?
